SB 1818- Review and Update by Lisa Sarkin from SCNC re: latest "giveaways" from the City of Los Angeles to the developers to accommodate the State Senate Bill SB-1818 allowing up to 35% more density and less parking requirements for those who meet the guidelines and provide at least 5% affordable housing in their projects. Google SB 1818 for details of the Bill. Zev Yaroslavsky representative Ben Salzman to be invited to GTLNC Board meeting to provide information and perspectives

CDO (Community Design Overlay) Motion was passed by the GTLNC to give GTLNC Planning Committee authority to hire Consulting firm to help us outline our Community Design Overlay Desires and Requirements. The consulting firm we had chosen, unfortunately is too busy at this time, and the amount of funds we could pay would not be sufficient for their needs vs. our time requirements

4440 Talofa Update. Downzoning of 9 parcels adjacent to the alley south of Riverside Drive to better mitigate the transition between Commercial zoning and single family residences....This motion passed at the City Council Meeting held on October

FYL-NBC/Universal Backlot Expansion - Update- Richard Bogy, Roy Disney
Motion was passed: That the Planning Committee support the direction and actions of the Universal/MTA Project Community Working Group in their efforts to come to a workable solution for the community.

Process for Reconsideration: Any person or group adversely affected by the decisions or policies of the GTLNC may file a written grievance with the Council. The Council shall then refer the matter to the Grievance Committee. Persons who wish to claim a grievance may do so by communicating with any member of the Grievance Committee, and the Grievance Committee shall invite the person claiming a grievance to present arguments and evidence, which may include testimony, to the committee. The Grievance Committee shall act to hear a grievance within thirty days of the initial communication and shall prepare a report and recommendation to the GTLNC to present at its next meeting, or at least no later than the following meeting. The Grievance Committee may on its own volition, communicate its findings directly to the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment (DONE) in addition to reporting to the Governing Board. The Governing Board shall include Grievance Committee reports in its agenda and shall hear the reports in a timely manner as describe above. Any aggrieved stakeholder has the right of appeal to DONE any decision by the GTLNC. This grievance process is intended to address matters involving procedural disputes, e.g., the Council's failure to comply with these Bylaws, or its failure to comply with the City's Charter, the Plan, or local, State or Federal law.
