

Katherine Hatton: She uses it, it just doesn't look like it.

-Juliann Miles: Have we had any new issues since the email? If not, maybe we should making a consolidated list of things we that we would like to see in all future communications and send that. It seems like it may lead to confusion if we start trickling out directions. While we are composing feedback and thing for the website, let's do that for the social media as well.

-Katherine Hatton: I feel that these are two separate issue. When the things for the website are settled then we can circle back.

7. GTLNC Youth Seat Outreach:

-Kelly: 2 seats are available.

-Juliann: I have done a push to local high schools, youth & government, TLHOA, & Chamber. Can you think of people we can do outreach to?

-Kelly Cole: East Valley High is the only high school that services Toluca Lake. However, let's check with Campbell Hall, Oak wood, Buckley, Providence, ND, Harvard Westlake.

8. 12th Annual Valley Disaster Preparedness Fair (10/12/19)

-Kelly Cole: Looking for board members to man the table. Well organized event. Great way to do Outreach. Joe may sit with Tony because he is part of the Public Safety committee.

9. Clean Streets Challenge: (TBD between 10/5/19- 11/30/19)

Katherine Hatton: Any motions need to complete the application?

Juliann Miles: No

Katherine: Would Outreach take on the burden of doing the application?

Juliann Miles: I highly recommend that EAC takes this on; By EAC taking the lead, EAC gets funds.

This way EAC can utilize those funds to enact beautification projects that fall in that mission statement.

This allows EAC to increase its budget.

10. GTLNC Halloween Bike Ride: (Tentatively 10/26/19)

Kelly Cole: We had a good turn out last year; We had electric scooters participating. It was a great time.

Tina Smith: Route will go past the winners of the decoration contest. It would be nice to do it when it is darker. The path will look nicer.

Danielle Mihaljevich: Can we get the police escort to do it at dusk?

Juliann Miles: That is a Kurtis question. It may be a safety issue.

Danielle Mihaljevich: Can you send me contact info?

Juliann Miles: Are you two officially taking this charge?

Danielle Mihaljevich: Yes

Juliann Miles: I'll email his contact after the meeting.

11. THOA Turkey Trot (11/10/19)

Kelly Cole: This event is HOA sponsored. 1.5 of events take place before the run. The early part of the event is free, and we can look into sponsor something during this part. Motion for refreshments can be put on the agenda for next month's meeting.

12. Earth Day/ Taste of Toluca 2020 (4/19/20)

Kelly Cole: It may be a good idea to keep all of the event. Keep the music, food, organizations, but it may make more sense to rebrand it Toluca Lake Day. Then we can give community organizations more to do than just have a booth. I think that it would encourage more people to participate.

Katherine Hatton: I agree. I feel like the Earth Day aspect has been very minimal if at all. It has not even been on Earth Day. We haven't even had compostable plates.

Juliann Miles: It use to be on Earth Day, but we moved it to not compete with resources, making it cheaper to obtain rentals and allows our public officials to attend. I think this is a great chance for EAC to step in and address some of these issues.

Katherine Hatton: EAC is not chairing the event. This is an Outreach event.

Juliann Miles: It is a GTLNC event that Outreach is chairing. All members are asked to participate in the event, and you are on both a member of the Outreach committee and the chair of EAC. With EAC voting on a new mission statement, this is a fantastic opportunity to enact that mission statement. Plus, the City has just passed a new initiative in which they have rolled out several green programs. This is a perfect opportunity to partner with the City and bridge the EAC mission statement with their programs. It would be nice to make it more of a kick off to more events in the month rather than the only even in the month.

Katherine Hatton: I will look into it.

Kelly: Maybe we can branch off of the name.
