4. Public Comment
Casey from East Valley YMCA asked about the NPG he submitted. NPG was submitted to Reyn and Colby, but Katherine noted that we hadn't seen the documentation yet.. Nick recuses himself from the discussion. Katherine committed to follow up with Colby following the meeting.
5. Committee Member News &amp; Announcements
Katherine asked about whether GTLNC had an account to conduct surveys. Robyn said she could ask Lisa. Brief discussion on redistricting.
6. On-Going Business
(One (1) Minute per Speaker per Agenda Item)
Nick raises concern about the cost and relative impact of outsourcing our social media accounts. Brief discussion about other forms of outreach including printed mail. Katherine suggested the content is the problem and that the committee could provide more direction for issues and infographics that would resonate more with the community and increase engagement.

Brief discussion of the homeless underpass cleanups and how to communicate the improvements to the community. Nick stressed the importance of communicating to the public how to keep the encampments from building up again.

Brief discussion about the farmer’s market and helping to promote that as a community event. Robyn mentioned that we have logoed items in storage that can be community giveaway items (pens, tote bags, etc)

Nick committed to reaching out the Turkey Trot leaders to find out more about existing community events and how we can help promote them.
